2. The bidder shall not have any actual, potential or reasonably perceived conflict of interest. A bidder with an actual, potential or reasonably perceived conflict of interest shall be disqualified. A bidder, including their respective personnel and affiliates, are considered to have a conflict of interest if any of them has a relationship that provides them with undue or undisclosed information about or influence over the evaluation process and the execution of the contract, b) participates in more than one quotation under this procurement action, c) has a business or family relationship with a member of the purchaser's board of directors or its personnel.

A bidder and the supplier have an ongoing obligation to promptly disclose any situation of actual, potential or reasonably perceived conflict of interest during the preparation of the quotation, the evaluation process or the contract execution. Failure to properly disclose any of said situations in a promptly manner may lead to appropriate actions, including the disqualification of the bidder, the termination of the contract and any other as appropriate.

Bidders and any of their personnel and agents, and their sub-consultants, sub-contractors, service providers, suppliers, sub-suppliers, and the latter's personnel and agents are required to fully cooperate with any investigation conducted by JTDS, including by making personnel available for interviews and by providing full access to any and all accounts, premises, documents and records (including electronic records) relating to this bidding process or the execution of the contract and to have such accounts, premises, records and documents audited and/or inspected by auditors and/or investigators appointed by JTDS.

- a. Bidders have the ongoing obligation to disclose in their quotation and later in writing as may become relevant: (i) any administrative sanctions, criminal convictions or temporary suspensions of themselves or any of their key personnel or agents for corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices, and (ii) any commissions or fees paid or to be paid to agents or other parties in connection with this bidding process or the execution of the contract. Bidders must disclose the name and contact details of the agent or other party and the reason, amount and currency of the commission or fee paid or to be paid. Failure to comply with these disclosure obligations may lead to rejection of the quotation or termination of the contract.
 - b. Bidders shall keep all records and documents, including electronic records, relating to this bidding process available for a minimum of three (3) years after notification of completion of the process or, in case the bidder is awarded the Contract, execution of the contract.
